Maya Tangalle is no illusion, although the word in Sanskrit means illusion. Tucked away in the idyllic Sri Lanka countryside, this restored manor sanctuary is also a stone's throw from Tangalle's stunning beaches.

The five suite property is an exquisite restoration of a 19th century Sri Lankan house which pays homage to Dutch and British period features yet stays true to modern tastes. Together with renowned Sri Lankan architect Pradeep Kodikara, owner and internationally-acclaimed interior designer Niki Fairchild has created a contemporary living space with sleek lines, enhanced space, sky-high ceilings, open views, and supremely comfortable living back into this heritage home. Two enthusiastic thumbs up!

TO DO

- ⊙ Rest. Maya is the place to relax, and with a library chock full of books, CDs & DVDs, you'll be able to shut out the rest of the world and escape.
- ⊙ Play. There's a selection of board games and garden games available at Maya such as croquet, petanque, volleyball and badminton. Get your game face on and go!
- ⊙ Swim. All Maya's five exquisitely decorated luxury suites lead straight to the fabulous L-shaped indigo 20m pool. Gaze at the paddy fields beyond, lounge by the poolside on designer sunbeds or play with pool floats.
- ⊙ Eat. Reputedly one of the best in Tangalle, Chef Darsahana will prepare fresh local food with a creative twist. Dining can be arranged in the stunning outdoor pavilion, by the pool, at your favourite spot in the garden or in the Old House's atmospheric dining room.
